Meet Our New Artists!

Michael Cessna

I'm a passionate photographer, artist, creator, writer, and poet. Like most artistic individuals, I'm an incredibly visual person and have always had an eye for beauty, whether natural or created. Using my openness and empathy, I'm always striving to capture and express an idea, message, or emotion through my works. The primary goal of my works is to express the ideas of friendship, romance, and love.

Look for Michael's workshop January 22!!

Rolanda Root

Growing up on a farm in rural Iowa I have always felt a close attachment to nature and the earth. 2-D art is my main focus; however, I do like to dabble in anything art related. I love to learn and create, especially if the topic is art related! Over the years I have been creating with pastel, oil, acrylic, encaustic, felting and mixed media. I have created many landscapes with pastel, oil and acrylic. I have recently started to work with leaves and paper dyeing. Creating my first dye pot was an experience. Whether it was mordanting paper, or adding bark, dried leaves, and iron to water and bringing to a boil the process felt like alchemy. With the art I create I want the viewer to feel an appreciation for our world and peace that is felt through nature.
