ArtForms Gallery artists are doing our part in maintaining a clean and safe environment for you to shop or take a workshop. At the time of this publication, we are still recommending wearing masks when shopping and requiring them during workshops. Please watch for announcements or call the Gallery for updates as these guidelines may be adjusted according to changing health conditions in our community. We look forward to seeing you soon!

Creative Brush Making

Artist: Michael Cessna

Create one beautiful paintbrush for use with your favorite medium (Sumi-e, watercolor, oil, encaustic, pottery, etc.). You'll have several choices of handles, such as Buddha belly bamboo, black bamboo, yellow bamboo, deer antler, and others. The bristle choices will include African broom grass, Tampico fiber, white Chinese bristle, coconut fiber, feathers (peacock, magpie, rooster, etc.), goat, and more. You'll finish your brush with a leather loop and other embellishments.

- Saturday, February 19 | 2:00 p.m. - 4:30 p.m.
- Fee: $40, payable at time of registration
- Ages: Adult
- Class size: 6
- Masks: Optional

Floating Cup

Artist: Debbie Southard

This is a fun technique when doing a pour painting. You will see the paint cup floating on the canvas as you pour. This is appropriate for anyone who wants to paint with either no experience or lots of experience. The results are amazing! Paint, canvas, tools, and also varnish are included. The varnished painting can be cleaned with a damp cloth and is very touchable.

- Date: Saturday, February 26 | 2:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.
- Fee: $35, payable at time of registration
- Class size: 10 people
- Ages: 14 and older

Check our Facebook page during the month as artists may offer "popup" workshops!
