Cancer Season Personal Artwork

Artist: Neva Rowland

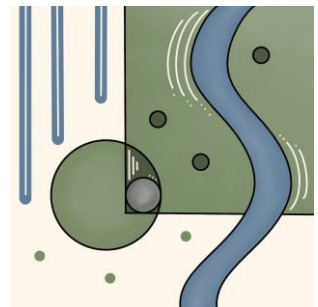

The Zodiac Art Workshop Series continues into Cancer season, and as the Sun moves into Cancer, it's time to slow down, nurture relationships, and focus on our inner healing.

There are two parts to this workshop.

First, Neva will help participants to look up their birth chart to see what other astrological luminaries are influencing the Cancer area of their chart.

Then, using that information, participants will write a personal affirmation or intention that they would like to embody during Cancer Season to guide the creation of their artwork.

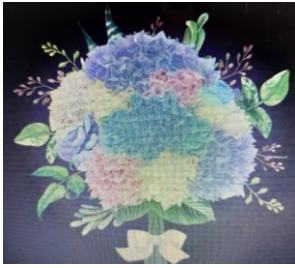

Cancer is the protective and emotional member of the zodiac and our artworks will feature the reflective color silver. You don't have to be a Cancer to enjoy and learn a lot in this workshop - all signs are welcome because we all have Cancer somewhere in our birth chart!

Some will be interactive with a group, some more thoughtful and introspective. Games of chance will challenge you let go of the reins that may be holding you back. We all work differently in our creative practice, and this workshop will help you discover what methods might work for you when it comes to keeping your creative cogs turning!
